Lovely two bedroom bungalow for sale with outside space and amazing sea views. The bungalow is accessed by steps leading up to a private terrace offering sea views and across the valley to El Portet and the Cumbre. The entrance takes you straight into a good size lounge diner, which features a log burner fireplace. Of the dining area through the arch is the modern well equipped kitchen, and a separate WC/ Cloakroom. A further arch leads to the Master Bedroom of good size for a kingsize bed, fitted wardrobes, ceiling fan and sea views. The second bedroom can fit 2 single beds and also has fitted wardrobes. The family bathroom has a bath, overhead shower, sink and toilet. Parking for two cars next to the property. The bungalow is one of 13 on a small complex with a communal pool that can be accessed through a path behind the bungalows, and has recently been reformed. The property is located in the popular resort seaside town of Moraira, where there is plenty of things to see and do, including hiring a boat, coastal walks, dining at fine restaurants, or getting a train just 10 minutes away to visit other coastal towns such as Denia or Benidorm. This property would make an ideal home or investment for holiday rentals. Lovely two bedroom bungalow for sale with outside space and amazing sea views.
